Corrales Hosts Community Indoor Craft Fair to Showcase Local Artisans and Small Businesses

CORRALES, NM — October 23, 2026 — Premier Sports Multiplex (PSM) will open its doors to the public for a seasonal Indoor Craft Fair on Sunday, November 1, 2026, from 12:00 PM to 4:00 PM. Located at 325 Academy Drive, Corrales, NM 87048, this family-friendly community event features free admission and offers residents an opportunity to support independent small businesses from across Sandoval County.

The fair serves as a vibrant indoor marketplace, arriving just in time for early holiday shopping. Attendees can explore a diverse selection of:

- Handmade Goods: Locally crafted home decor, specialized products, and artisan gifts.
- Original Art: Unique pieces and regional artwork created by neighborhood talent.
- Baked Treats: Freshly prepared seasonal pastries and confections.
- Food Trucks: A lineup of local culinary trucks operating on-site throughout the afternoon.

"This craft fair is designed to bridge the gap between talented local makers and the community," organizers stated. "By hosting this inside Premier Sports Multiplex, we are providing a warm, centralized space for neighbors to gather, celebrate local creativity, and reinvest directly back into our regional economy."

Admission and parking are free to the general public. Members of the community who have inquiries or require additional details are encouraged to send a text message directly to (505) 738-3311.
