Wild Hearts Gallery

an artists' collective

We are painters, sculptors, potters, photographers, printmakers, jewelers, woodworkers, glass, fiber and mosaic artists. We are committed to sharing the many ways we create. We have come together as a collective to inspire each other and generate opportunities for fine artists to offer their work, their stories and their passions right here in Placitas, New Mexico, USA.

While Covid-19 makes life uncertain for all of us, our artists continue to create and are optimistically lining out a calendar of one-month shows and featured artists in 2021. When we can, artist receptions will be celebrated with fellowship and refreshments. When we can't, we will observe the day and time with extended hours.
