The Placitas Community Library invites you to join Nina Amir, author of Change the World One Book at a Time: Make a Positive and Meaningful Difference with Your Words.

"HOW TO WRITE BOOKS THAT CHANGE THE WORLD"

There has never been a better time to write for change; the causes from which to choose are varied and many. But writing a book that inspires and motivates readers to action takes more than a good idea and writing skills.

Join author and Placitas resident Nina Amir to discover how to use a book to further your cause, mission, movement, or purpose.

Novels, memoirs, and non-fiction books can all inspire change. And such books cover a wide range of topics, religion, spirituality, personal development, politics, environmentalism, activism, world affairs, economics, and more.

Participants will learn the three fundamental steps they must take to make a positive and meaningful difference with their words and their book. Plus, Nina will leave ample time for questions about writing and writing for change, traditional and self-publishing, and becoming an author.

Nina Amir, the Inspiration to Creation Coach, is an Amazon best-selling hybrid author. She supports writers on the journey to successful authorship as an author coach, non-fiction developmental editor, transformational coach, and certified high-performance coach—the only one working with writers.
Join Nina Amir at the Placitas Community Library on July 25 at 2 pm for the opportunity to learn to write to change your world.
